OPENING PRAYER

Loving God, we thank you that you listen to us.

And through your Spirit you intercede for us.

This morning we bring to you our groans that go too deep for words.

We come to you out of our bondage, sorrow, and night.

We come to you out of our failures, loss, and despair.

You invite us to enter your freedom, gladness, and light.

You have displayed your love to us through your son Jesus and ask us to dwell in your grace.

Give us such a confidence in your mercy that even in the storms of life we can trust your goodness working within us and know that nothing in the entire universe can separate us from your love. Amen.
