

We have many adult classes here at Walnut Memorial. You can try one or try them all to see where you would best fit in with people you can learn, encourage, and grow with in your faith.

Building A Legacy meets in the East Wing upstairs in Room 418. This class is for all ages, but is mostly centered on young parents. It is taught by Mike Staples.

A Firm Foundation meets in the East Wing upstairs in 422 and is taught by Lee Rice. This class is for all ages, married or single.

Verse by Verse is taught by Tim Royal and meets upstairs in the West Wing in Room 208. This class is for all ages, married or single.

Cornerstone class is taught by Eddy Alvey and Mike Bosely. They meeting upstairs in the East Wing in Room 400. This class is for all ages, married or single.

Pairs & Spares meets in Room 420 in the East Wing upstairs. Danny Richeson & Tim Leachman lead this class that is for all ages, married or single.

Living Waters meets in the Fellowship Hall located in the West Wing. John Bickel teaches this class that is for all ages, married or single.