Student Ministries (6th-12th grade) & Connections

My wife, Jaime & I first attended LFCN for a Dave Ramsey - Financial Peace University course led by Lee Hall in 2007. We became regular attenders in 2009 when we returned to Lynchburg. I have since served on the worship team playing guitar and leading a LifeGroup from our home. I joined the staff in September 2013, fulfilling a call to full-time ministry that I have sensed since 2002.

Before coming on board, I graduated from Liberty University with a Bachelor of Science in Religion: Biblical Studies in 2006, Masters of Arts in Religion: Church Ministries in 2008, and Master of Arts in Teaching: Special Education in 2012. I am currently taking courses for ordination. I formerly worked as a mental health counselor / behavioral specialist, part-time youth pastor in Nelson County, youth day camp director, and a special education teacher in Amherst County for three years.

I married my best friend and gorgeous bride, Jaime, in June of 2007. We have had three beautiful little children Annabelle, Ellia, and Titus. In addition to being a full-time stay at home mom, Jaime teaches as online adjunct faculty with Liberty University's School of Education and instructs homebound students, tutoring them several times a week.

My heart burns for the mission of our church to "Love God, Love Others, & Serve Both" and I'm honored that I am able to serve such a loving community of people.

Hobbies: playing guitar, snowboarding, traveling, and camping / hiking.

Interesting fact: I've been around the globe in 10 different countries, including a 4 month stay in Australia.
