

NEIGHBORING WORKSHEET

WEEK ONE: THE CALL

If you loved God and your neighbors with your whole self, how could this next year look differently? Dream big. Write your dream below, then share it with someone.

WEEK TWO: THE FEAR

What brings you the most anxiety, sends you into a depression, or causes you to feel insecurity or doubt? The things we are afraid of are often the things standing in the way of our being courageous missionaries for Jesus in the everyday stuff like neighbor-ing. They also tend to be aspects of our life that we have not exposed to the power of the gospel, or where we have forgotten the good news of Jesus. Our fears are recurring episodes of unbelief. Prayerfully name your biggest fear right now, and then walk through the exercise below to diagnose your root unbelief.

Now What Can I Do/Be In Response?
(Good Fruit)

And What Does That Make Me?
(True Identity)

But What Do I Know Is True Of God As Shown In Jesus?
(Belief)

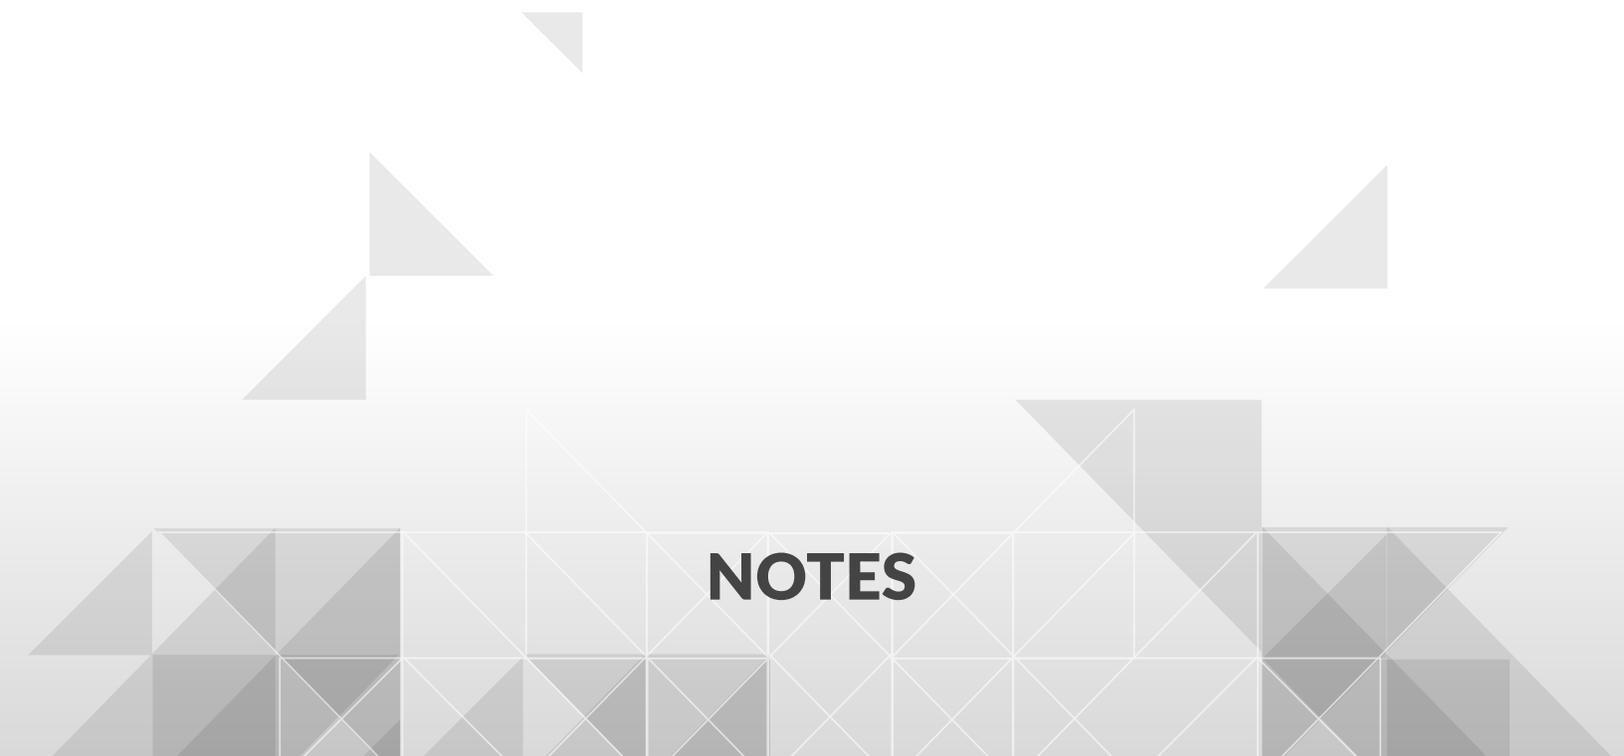

What is the story of your life? If your neighbor asked you to share why you are who you are and do what you do, how would you answer? Off the top of your head, write down a very brief description of your life in the form of an engaging story:

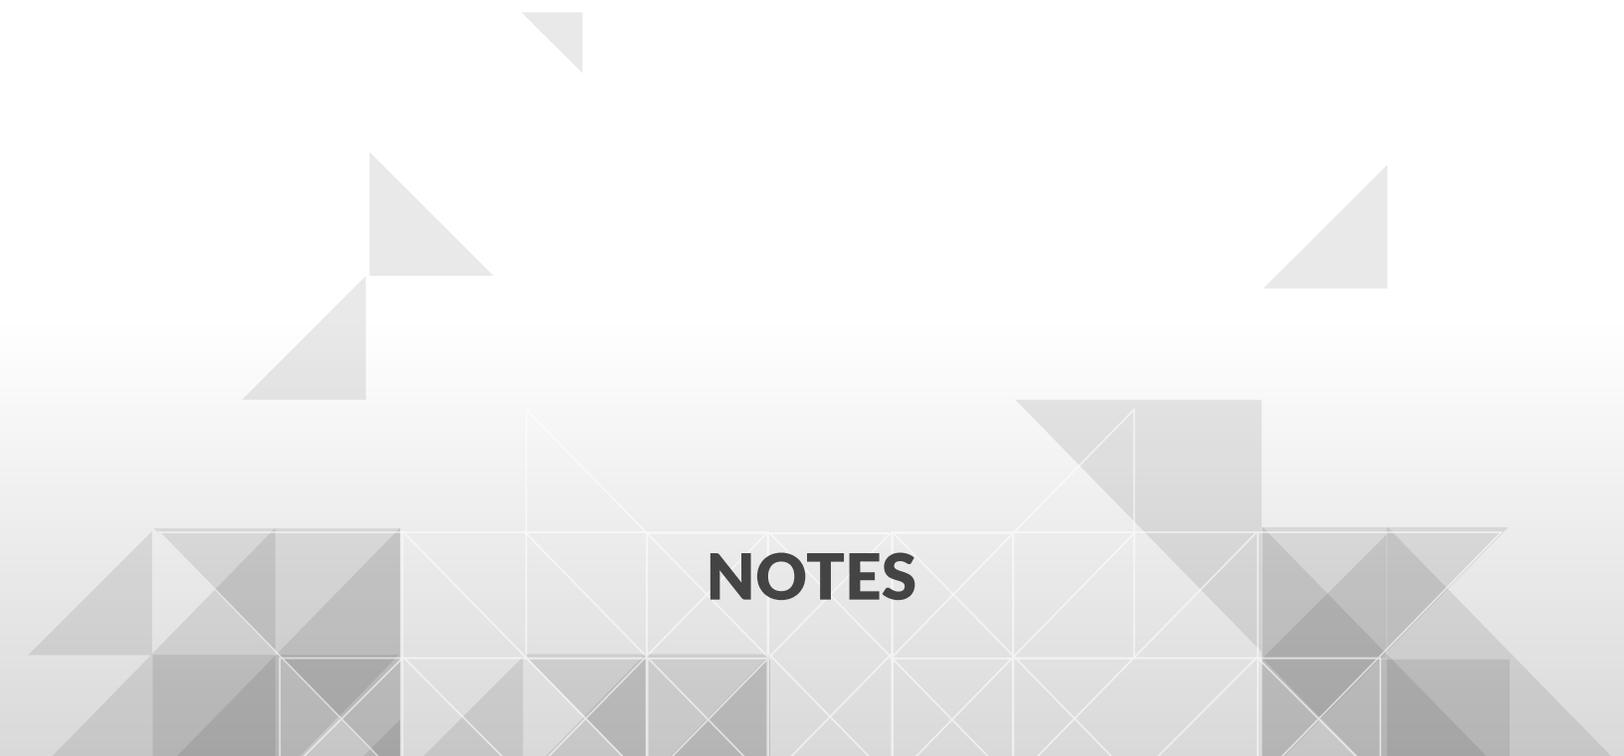

Now, look back over your story. Who is the hero/focus of your story? Is it you? Is it a family member or friend? A formative event or time of hardship? God wants to use our story to highlight his larger, better story. In order for us to reflect Jesus to our neighbors, he needs to be our clear hero. Rewrite your story below if needed:
