

Romans: Together For The Gospel

April 2 // Romans 11:11-24

Introduction

Paul's moves his attention to the Gentiles and their salvation. Jealousy and pride are both damaging to one's relationship with God.

Discussion Questions

1. Why is jealousy so damaging to our relationship with God?
2. Where are some specific areas of life where you struggle with jealousy? Has there ever been a time when the Lord used your jealousy to draw you to him?
3. God can use Israel's jealousy to draw her to himself. What does this say about how God uses even our rebellion for his purposes?
4. In what ways does pride harden our hearts? How can we combat pride?
5. Has there been something, perhaps pride, that God has pruned from your heart?
6. What is a "wise fear" of the Lord? How does it help our relationship with God?
