We're glad you're with us today!

We welcome you to All Saints'. If you are new to us, we hope you will introduce yourself to our clergy after the service.

All Saints' is an active church with a pre-K through 8th grade day school. As an Episcopal church and school, we are part of the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona, The Episcopal Church (TEC), and the worldwide Anglican Communion. All Saints' is a vibrant, diverse community with a wide range of views—united in our commitment to follow Christ as we pray, learn, and serve together. In so doing, we connect with each other, with God, and with those in need.

At the heart of all that we do is our worship of God. Page numbers in the order of service refer to the red Book of Common Prayer and hymns are in the blue Hymnal 1982. We experience the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine of our Holy Communion, and we invite all baptized Christians from any Christian church or tradition to eat and drink at the Eucharistic feast with us. Children are active participants in our community, and baptized children are welcome to receive communion (for information on baptism, call the Church Office).

Most adults receive the consecrated bread with their hands and dip it (intinct) in the cup of wine. Anyone wishing to receive only the bread or wine may do so (the sacrament is fully present in either). If you need gluten-free bread, please use the yellow card in your pew to alert the clergy when you come to the altar rail. If you prefer not to partake of communion, please come forward for a blessing. You may signal the priest of this intention by crossing your arms over your chest.

Wherever you are in your journey of faith, we hope you will feel the loving, transforming presence of God here. If you are looking for a church home, we invite you to get to know us better. You may fill out a visitor card in the pew and put it in the collection basin at the offertory, or speak with a hospitality volunteer or clergy person. You are also welcome to call the Church Office during the week at 602.279.5539. Our clergy love to meet with newcomers, and we can share the next steps in exploring membership at All Saints'. We also invite you to join us for fellowship and refreshments. Large print prayer books and hymnals as well as receivers for the hearing impaired are available in the narthex (the lobby area).

Please prepare for worship in silence.

PRELUDE "Nun komm der heiden heiland" BWV 659 J. S. Bach

THE WORD OF GOD

Please stand.

Deacon: Let us go forth in peace.

People: In the name of Christ. Amen.

PROCESSION: THE GREAT LITANY

SEE INSERT

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings.

READING FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT

ISAIAH 64:1-9

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence—as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 80:1-7, 16-18

sung by the Choir

- 1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; * shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.
- 2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, * stir up your strength and come to help us.
- 3 Restore us, O God of hosts; * show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 4 O LORD God of hosts, * how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?
- 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears; * you have given them bowls of tears to drink.
- 6 You have made us the derision of our neighbors, * and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
- 7 Restore us, O God of hosts; * show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 16 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, * the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.
- 17 And so will we never turn away from you; * give us life, that we may call upon your Name.
- 18 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts; * show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

READING FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

1 CORINTHIANS 1:3-9

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you—so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the Gospel Hymn and the reading of the Gospel.

GOSPEL HYMN St. Flavian

Hymnal #615 vs. 1-2

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Please be seated while the congregation takes communion.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All Baptized Christians are invited to come forward to receive the sacrament. Place one hand over the other to receive the bread. You may either drink from the chalice or intinct (dip the bread in the wine). If you prefer, you may come forward instead for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like one of our lay Prayer Team members to pray with you during the administration of communion, please use the side aisles to go to the last pew on either side of the back of the church. You may seek prayer either before or after receiving communion. All prayers are confidential.
