HOLY EUCHARIST THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT SUNDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2017 AT 11AM

THE REV. JOIE BAKER, CELEBRANT

THE RT. REV. WILLIAM BURRILL, PREACHER

THE REV. JAMES BADE, DEACON

JOSEPH RIPKA, DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

TREVOR CAROLAN, INTERIM ORGANIST

We're glad you're with us today!

We welcome you to All Saints'. If you are new to us, we hope you will introduce yourself to our clergy after the service.

All Saints' is an active church with a pre-K through 8th grade day school. As an Episcopal church and school, we are part of the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona, The Episcopal Church (TEC), and the worldwide Anglican Communion. All Saints' is a vibrant, diverse community with a wide range of views—united in our commitment to follow Christ as we pray, learn, and serve together. In so doing, we connect with each other, with God, and with those in need.

At the heart of all that we do is our worship of God. Page numbers in the order of service refer to the red Book of Common Prayer and hymns are in the blue Hymnal 1982. We experience the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine of our Holy Communion, and we invite all baptized Christians from any Christian church or tradition to eat and drink at the Eucharistic feast with us. Children are active participants in our community, and baptized children are welcome to receive communion (for information on baptism, call the Church Office).

Most adults receive the consecrated bread with their hands and dip it (intinct) in the cup of wine. Anyone wishing to receive only the bread or wine may do so (the sacrament is fully present in either). If you need gluten-free bread, please use the yellow card in your pew to alert the clergy when you come to the altar rail. If you prefer not to partake of communion, please come forward for a blessing. You may signal the priest of this intention by crossing your arms over your chest.

Wherever you are in your journey of faith, we hope you will feel the loving, transforming presence of God here. If you are looking for a church home, we invite you to get to know us better. You may fill out a visitor card in the pew and put it in the collection basin at the offertory, or speak with a hospitality volunteer or clergy person. You are also welcome to call the Church Office during the week at 602.279.5539. Our clergy love to meet with newcomers, and we can share the next steps in exploring membership at All Saints'. We also invite you to join us for fellowship and refreshments. Large print prayer books and hymnals as well as receivers for the hearing impaired are available in the narthex (the lobby area).

Please prepare for worship in silence.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the Readings.

READING FROM THE OLD TESTAMENT

ISAIAH 40:1-11

"Comfort, O comfort my people," says your God. "Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins." A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken." A voice says, "Cry out!" And I said, "What shall I cry?" All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God will stand forever. Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings; lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, "Here is your God!" See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him; his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 85:1-2, 8-13

sung by the Choir

- 1 You have been gracious to your land, O LORD, * you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
- 2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people * and blotted out all their sins.
- 8 I will listen to what the LORD God is saying, * for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.
- 9 Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, * that his glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth have met together; * righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring up from the earth, * and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
- 12 The LORD will indeed grant prosperity, * and our land will yield its increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him, * and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

READING FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

2 PETER 3:8-15a

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. The Lord is not slow about his promise, as some think of slowness, but is patient with you, not wanting any to perish, but all to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fire, and the earth and everything that is done on it will be disclosed. Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be in leading lives of holiness and godliness, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set ablaze and dissolved, and the elements will melt with fire? But, in accordance with his promise, we wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home. Therefore, beloved, while you are waiting for these things, strive to be found by him at peace, without spot or blemish, and regard the patience of our Lord as salvation.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the Gospel Hymn and the reading of the Gospel.

GOSPEL HYMN St. Agnes Hymnal #343 vs. 1-2

THE HOLY GOSPEL MARK 1:1-8

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. As it is written in the prophet Isaiah, "See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way; the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,'" John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Gospel of the Lord.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All Baptized Christians are invited to come forward to receive the sacrament. Place one hand over the other to receive the bread. You may either drink from the chalice or intinct (dip the bread in the wine). If you prefer, you may come forward instead for a blessing by crossing your arms over your chest.

If you would like one of our lay Prayer Team members to pray with you during the administration of communion, please use the side aisles to go to the last pew on either side of the back of the church. You may seek prayer either before or after receiving communion. All prayers are confidential.
