

Catholic Bible 101: Overview of the Old Testament

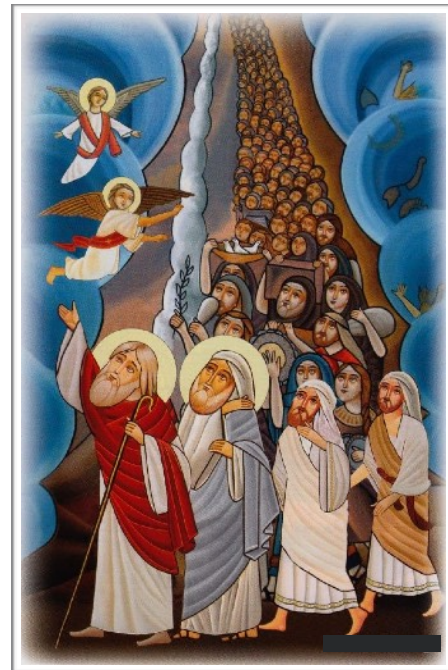

Presented by

Fr. Matthew Alexander

Six Saturday Sessions in 2018:

February 17, 24 and March 3, 10, 17, 24

9:00 - 10:30 a.m. in the Parish Center Meeting Rooms

Sacred Scripture retells the greatest love story in all of human history. Each and every one of us is integrally caught up in the grace of that beautiful story of salvation. In this six-week series, Fr. Matt will examine the beginning of the story of salvation and present an overview of the Old Testament by diving deeper into the Scriptural accounts of God’s covenants with humanity and the Jewish people. Each covenant of the Old Testament anticipates and foretells of the Eucharistic Covenant that Jesus Christ extends to His Church today. No previous study of Scripture is required; rather, come with a heart that desires to more deeply encounter the Word of God.

Please register to help the parish prepare for the sessions. You may register by visiting www.stmaryfc.org or by returning this form with payment to the parish office.

Fr. Matthew Alexander - Associate Pastor at St. Mary

Father Matt Alexander is a priest of the Archdiocese of Chicago and currently serves as Associate Pastor at St. Mary of the Annunciation in Mundelein. He completed his undergraduate studies in philosophy at Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio, where he first found and responded to his calling to be a priest of Jesus Christ. He then attended Mundelein Seminary from 2010 - 2015, and was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Chicago upon graduation. Fr. Matt completed his Licentiate in Sacred Theology from Mundelein Seminary in 2017, and will return to the seminary to teach a course on the Old Testament for the Institute of Lay Formation in Spring 2018.
