The Resurrection of Jesus is the crowning truth of our faith in Christ. We are familiar with the accounts of Jesus' appearances after the Resurrection, and many are read at Mass during the Easter season. When we examine the accounts in the four gospels we find minor differences. What are the reasons for those differences, and what do they tell us about the early disciples experience of the Risen Jesus? In this presentation we will explore the accounts of Jesus' appearances and what they are intended to teach us today about the message of the Resurrection and our life together in Christ. Celebrate the joy of the Easter season and explore the stories of the risen Christ among us!

"Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!"

(Luke 24:5-6)
