

IS MY CHILD READY FOR BAPTISM?

As a follower of Christ, your child may want to make his/her decision public by getting baptized.

Baptism is a picture of what Jesus did on the cross and He tells us to be baptized to show others that we follow Him. As you prepare to speak with the Children's Pastor, Greg, here are some things to talk about with your child. (If at any point you feel your child has not made a firm decision to invite Jesus into his/her life, switch to our Salvation tool then return to this at a later time.)

Share: Baptism is when we go under the water, symbolizing Jesus' death and resurrection- Jesus died and came back to life again on the third day.

Share your story of how you were baptized and what it meant to you to share publicly the decision you made to follow Jesus.

Discuss: Have your child tell you why he/she wants to be baptized.

It's important to only listen during this time. Refrain from the urge to finish their sentences or help them complete a thought. You want your child to articulate (be able to tell others) their personal reasons for wanting to be baptized.

Ask: What happens when you sin again?

Most kids are more worried about getting in trouble with Mom or Dad when they do something wrong than asking God for forgiveness, so it's hard for them to connect "getting in trouble" when we talk about God and sin. Make sure they understand that it's by the grace and love of Jesus that our sins are forgiven.

The answer is to confess and repent (stop doing wrong and do right) of our sins to God and sometimes to the person we have done wrong to.

Ask: Does this mean you'll never sin again?

No. You do not need to live a life that chooses sin, but you will continue to make mistakes (sin). Only Jesus lived a sinless life.

Pray: Take this opportunity to pray a blessing over your child.

This is as simple as asking God's favor in their life. As a parent, you have so much influence over your child and they need to hear what you think of them. Take this time to verbalize your thoughts about your child's decision in prayer.
