

WORLD HISTORY INSTITUTE

May 2016

Dear Friend,

Thank you for standing with us in the battle to reach and educate Americans in our true and unique Christian heritage. We are in a full court press to bring the great truths of liberty and faith to the generations of the 21st century.

Last week I privately met with select Christian leaders from around the country. I trained them in the victorious strategy to build a godly nation as revealed in the Bible and proven in history. Next month I am filming a seminar that will be broadcast around America and potentially across the British Isles. In July we will be holding a special conference at the Edinburgh Castle in Scotland to bring Scots and Americans together to believe God for a mighty awakening in both of our countries.

We at the World History Institute do all we do on a shoestring. There are no large perks for the staff—just the sincere knowledge that we are serving King Jesus and He will reward His servants. But we do need your help. Videos, films, radio, television and seminars are very expensive to produce. But they are the tools of communication for our time!

For those who can help us this month in this vital cause, we want to offer a special gift. The book The Culture Wise Family authored by my dear friend Dr. Ted Baehr, President of Movieguide, explains our media battle for the hearts of Americans, especially our children and grandchildren. It will give you hope for the future of films and media.

May the Lord richly prosper and bless you,

Marshall Foster

P.S. Please consider coming on either my summer trip to Scotland or to my journey up the historic Eastern coast of America in September. Time is running out to register for these journeys of a lifetime.
