

WORLD HISTORY INSTITUTE

July 2016

Dear Friend,

We are greatly encouraged as we see an awakening among many Christian leaders. As I write this letter, 1,000 evangelical leaders have just met with the presumptive Republican nominee for president. The consensus was that the candidate was in agreement with their concerns. They also agreed that America's future hinges on biblical and historical education that challenges Christians to engage our culture and to restore our republic.

Together, with your generous help, WHI has been educating and inspiring Americans for decades to rise up and rebuild our nation for God's glory and for our children's future. Through the years we have helped to found dozens of organizations dedicated to this task.

During this crucial year of decision and destiny, we are focusing our training on the millions of Americans who learn most of what they know from the internet—from Facebook, YouTube clips and “slow jams” with a political or religious theme on late night TV.

Using some of these new media formats, we are preparing podcasts, online teaching and films to reach America and the world. Please pray for me as I leave soon for Oregon for a filming session with one of our nation's foremost Christian media producers.

Then later this month I will be in Scotland leading a tour teaching leaders and their families the blood-bought story of liberty, birthed in Scotland and brought to America. We will conclude our tour visiting the Holy Island of Iona, the birthplace of the last great revival in Western Civilization in 1949 which ultimately spread to America. There we will be praying for you, our friends and supporters, and for a mighty revival back to God and a restoration of our Christian roots in America, the British Isles and beyond.

Thank you for your friendship, prayers and financial contributions which enable our ministry to reach so many spiritually hungry souls. In these lean summer months please consider your most gracious, generous contribution possible to help us to multiply exponentially our message of the liberating Gospel of Christ to the online generation.

In His victory,

Dr. Marshall Foster
