

“With our culture moving away from its Judeo-Christian roots, the inception of the Reason for Truth (RFT) (National Apologetics Training Center (NATC) a division of RFT) by Steven Garofalo is very timely. Steve has been making an impact in the area of cultural apologetics for over fifteen years. He is one of the best persons I know to carry out that mission. As adviser to Steve’s Masters of Apologetics program, I became aware that God had uniquely gifted him for this ministry. The man, the moment, and the message have converged for equipping the upcoming generations. While speaking with me on many occasions, I observed Steve’s penetrating message, his understanding of people from different cultures, and his ability to apply his message to their current needs. The battle against the onslaught of a secular worldview is raging more than ever before in the history of our country. And I believe God has raised up RFT to effectively engage this battle. This is why I am delighted to stand with Steve and the Reason For Truth. ”
