"I have known Steven Garofalo for over 20 years and Steven and Reason For Truth (NATC) are fulfilling an essential role in equipping a new generation to stand strong for the truth of God and the founding principles of our nation. The failure to teach the next generation the fundamentals of the Christian faith has come back to haunt us as our nation begins to reflect a growing lack of biblical values. It is essential that we begin to train up and equip a new generation to be able to give a reason for the truth and hope within us. Reason For Truth is training up of a new generation with Christian apologetics is a bright spot in our nation. By training up and equipping the body to give answers for the Christian faith-intellectually, biblically, scientifically, and philosophically, Reason For Truth is helping raise up a new generation to answer and advance the truth of God and turn our world right side up again. I believe in Steven Garofalo and stand with Reason For Truth."
