PROPHETS TOLD ABOUT JESUS

ISAIAH 7:14; 9:6; 11:1-5; MICAH 5:2

From Isaiah 6: Hundreds of years before Jesus was born, God's people stopped following His laws. God sent prophets to warn the people to turn away from their sins and follow God. Isaiah was one of these prophets.

One day, when Isaiah was worshiping God in the temple, Isaiah heard the voice of God say, "Whom should I send? Who will go for Us?"

Isaiah said, "Here I am! Send me."

God told Isaiah to deliver an important message to His people. God told Isaiah that He would choose a woman to have a son. The child would be named Immanuel, which means "God with us."

God also said that the Messiah would be a ruler and would be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace. He would be born from the family of King David and would be wise, just, understanding, and full of God's Spirit. God planned from the beginning of time to send Jesus to save the people from their sins.

Another prophet named Micah delivered God's message that although Bethlehem was a small town, a great ruler over Israel would come from this small town. Micah told the people that the ruler who would come had existed since the beginning. Micah told the people that the coming Messiah would be the Savior and His greatness would be known to the ends of the earth.

God promised to send Jesus, the Savior, to the world. Isaiah, Micah, and many other people looked forward to the time when God would keep His promise. Almost seven hundred years later, everything the prophets said about Jesus came true! God kept the promise He made through the prophets.
