

Scott Swanstrom – Associate Pastor of GO Ministries and Students

Scott Swanstrom is originally from Overland Park, Kansas and moved multiple times in a Marine Corp family. He graduated from Liberty University in 2002 with a Bachelor's in Psychology. Moving to Jacksonville, Scott married his wife, Tricia, in December, 2002 after beginning a relationship birthed on a mission trip to India. He has since completed his Master of Arts in Religion, with a focus on Pastoral Counseling. He has planted, pastored, and consulted in Jacksonville, Florida for 10 years of ministry experience. Throughout this time, he and Trish grew their family with 3 children: Brynn Hannah, Grayson Scott, and Ethan Charles.

Scott is motivated to bringing Student Ministry and Missions together, using platforms such as the arts. Creating partnerships with church plants is one of the best expressions of missions for the Church today.
