

THE SIBERIAN LUTHERAN MISSION SOCIETY

Lutheran Theological Seminary in Novosibirsk, Russia

Please join the members of Trinity Lutheran Church-St. Joseph hear the story of how God is working in Russia through the Gospel. We will be hosting a small delegation from Russia who will share information about the Lutheran Seminary and Church in Novosibirsk, Russia.

The Russian guests who will be visiting you are:

Rev. Bishop Vsevolod Lytkin, Bishop of the Siberian Evangelical Lutheran Church

Mr. Yuri Lytkin, son of Bishop Lytkin (you may access his musical talents on You Tube)

Ms. Natalia Sheludiakova, organist at St. Andrew Lutheran Church, Novosibirsk, (Siberia) Russia

There will be a special opportunity for people in the St. Joseph area to hear the story about the Lutheran Church in Siberia. The following will be in the discussion: (1) How the remarkable seminary in Novosibirsk was established through the joint efforts of Concordia Theological Seminary and the Marvin M. Schwan Charitable Foundation, following the fall of the tyrannical Soviet Empire; (2) how the Siberian Lutheran Mission Society came to be involved in supporting this endeavor; and (3) how you can help in the five-year strategy to save the seminary from being closed.

Thursday, 1/11/18 – 6:30 p.m.
